

MATTHEW ROSS, senior portfolio manager, Uninvest (Unilever pension plans)

Matthew Ross, CFA, is a senior portfolio manager for the Uninvest company responsible for the listed equity and alternative investments of the Unilever pension funds. He joined the Uninvest company in 2012 and reviews all external equity managers as well as manages a portfolio of sustainable North American equities. Prior to this he was a senior research analyst at a U.S. based investment consulting firm responsible for manager research and portfolio construction. Matthew holds a Master's degree in Finance from the University of Amsterdam and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.